This 11th-century temple blends Chola and Kalinga architecture, adorned with intricate carvings and a sacred atmosphere. The idol remains covered in sandalwood paste throughout the year, giving it the appearance of a Shiva lingam, and is revealed only once annually. The stunning sunrise and sunset views make Tenneti Park a favorite photo spot and a must-visit for those seeking tranquility by the sea.

Ross Hill Church

Ross Hill Church is a revered Roman Catholic church located atop Ross Hill, one of the three popular hills in Visakhapatnam — the other two being Darga Konda (with a Muslim shrine) and Venkateswara Konda (with a Hindu temple). This trio beautifully symbolizes the religious harmony of the region. The church is believed to have been built in 1864 by a European settler named Monsieur Ross, after whom the hill is named. It offers a panoramic view of the Visakhapatnam port, city, and Bay of Bengal, making it not just a place of worship but also a scenic viewpoint.

Bavikonda Buddhist Complex

Located about 16 km from Visakhapatnam, the Bavikonda Buddhist Complex is an ancient hilltop monastery site dating back to the 3rd century BCE. The name "Bavikonda" means "Hill of Wells," referring to the many rock-cut cisterns found here that once stored rainwater for monks. The complex features stupas, viharas, chaityas, and relic chambers that reflect the prominence of early Hinayana Buddhism in the region. Surrounded by serene landscapes and ocean views, Bavikonda offers a peaceful, spiritually rich experience for history lovers, pilgrims, and those seeking quiet reflection.

Yarada Beach

Tucked away behind hills and far from the city's hustle, Yarada Beach is a hidden gem located about 15 km from Visakhapatnam.
